

Character Evaluation of the Joseph Story (Part 3)

You are now reading Genesis 37-50 in order to evaluate the actions of Joseph. Why does he do what he does and how does that contribute to the kind of person he is or is becoming? Answer the questions below, and be very specific and concise in your answers. Your grade is dependent on how specific and concise you are and the examples and support you give for your answers (include Bible references). Do not quote the Scriptures unless it is something they said and is necessary to make your point. Number your paper and answer the questions in complete sentences (Times New Romans, 12 pt., 1-inch margins, single-spaced).

Evaluation and Application the of Story and Character

1. How, if at all, does Joseph develop (character and maturity) in the course of the story for good or bad?
2. How did he affect the people in his life (influence them or change them for the better or worse)? Support and give examples.
3. In what way(s) is Joseph an example to follow or to avoid and why?
4. What does Joseph's experience teach about who God is and the way that He relates to people?
5. How does this story develop the four metanarratives?
6. What aspects of the story can you relate to? If there anything that you learned from this story that applies to you?
